

Khadi Day Celebration

VENUE:

Basket Ball Court – INDIAN ACADEMY DEGREE COLLEGE – AUTONOMOUS

1:00pm on 30th September 2023

Aim:

To promote and celebrate the significance of Khadi, a symbol of India's struggle for independence and self-reliance.

Objectives:

- To raise awareness about the importance of Khadi and its contribution to India's freedom movement.
- To promote the use of Khadi products and support the artisans and weavers involved in its production.
- To encourage the youth to adopt Khadi as a symbol of nationalism and self-reliance.

Outcome:

The Khadi Day celebration was a huge success, with a significant increase in the sale of Khadi products. The event also witnessed a surge in the number of youngsters adopting Khadi as a part of their daily attire. The awareness campaigns and workshops conducted during the event helped to educate people about the importance of Khadi and its contribution to India's freedom movement.

About:

Khadi Day is celebrated on September 17th every year to commemorate the adoption of Khadi by Mahatma Gandhi as a symbol of India's struggle for independence. Khadi, which refers to handspun and handwoven cloth, was promoted by Gandhi as a way to promote self-reliance and economic independence. Today, Khadi Day is celebrated across India to promote the use of Khadi products and to honor the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi.
